GEARING UP FOR HURRICANE SEASON

HURRICANE SEASON IS BLOWING IN AGAIN, and you know what that means – it's time to prepare. Fortunately, Beaches Energy has tips to help make it easy to keep your home and family safe.

Pack a Disaster Kit: Stock up on several days' worth of water, food, batteries, first aid equipment, and more.

Read Up on Generator Safety: Learn about your equipment and how to use it safely before a storm hits.

Plan for Evacuations: Know your evacuation zone, find shelter locations, and have a plan ready to go.

Ask for Help: Take advantage of free city resources for people who need help evacuating, powering medical devices, and more.

Visit BeachesEnergy.com/Hurricanes to learn more.

THE DOG DAYS OF SUMMER

RESCUED FROM AN OVERCROWDED JACKSONVILLE SHELTER,

Asteroid's early years were marked by fear – especially of people and loud noises. When Beaches Energy began upgrading equipment in the neighborhood, Asteroid's mom, and our team, jumped into action.

"They clearly make her day, and mine. I even think she brightens their day! We will miss them when the job is finished."

When Asteroid passed by on her daily walks, the crew turned down the noise, spoke softly, and asked how they could help. With time and patience, an unshakeable bond formed. No longer afraid, Asteroid now confidently seeks out her favorite Beaches Energy crew members, tail wagging, hoping for pets and a friendly hello.
